CREATING A CLASSIC

With students from Kindergarten through Seniors in high school, the Hartville school district creates memories through their students which live on to become classics in themselves.

Brains and Brauns:

Sophomore Lisa Palmer turns to studying French after a foot injury in a JV basketball game.

Is life really a "day-to-day drama?" Shakespeare explains that it is possible for life to be a drama when he said, "All the world's a stage and the men and women merely players." So it is true that even in small schools like Hartville, big dramas are bound to occur. Whether it's the big test, big game, big break-up or any other "big" event, the drama in life remains. What's in your day-to-day drama?

Meet Me at The Pole:

A National Day of Prayer is held every year in nearly every city in the U.S. Approximately 150 students took part in the event at HHS.

Friends Forever:

Juniors Stephanie Gage and Jessica Pickett show that you're never too old for a friendly hug.

Just Call Me "Count":

Dressed as a vampire for Halloween, Kindergartener Josh Moreland shows that he has a dark side--a very dark side.

( a.k.a. Ryan Zinnert, Adam Cook, Michael Daugherty).

R&R, relaxing while reading.

Shawn Bass says, "Just checking," as he looks at his neighbors work.

Senior Jon Dillinger giggles as Senior Jennie Faust lavishly brushes the hair from her eyes. Meanwhile,
Senior Heidi Oesterreicher hides.

In memory of Orville Redenbacher, Sophomore Nick Dolan devours his last bag of popcorn.

Junior Danny Petty is hypnotized by words in his Biology Book.

Tweedle Dee and Tweedle Dumb; no, it's just Jason Arnall and Marty Pedersen.

Hartville students caught "acting up."

The following preview has been approved for all audiences. Not yet rated.

Hartville High

A star-studded cast of hometown heroes, with the simple plot of student life. The good and the bad blend well within the school. From locker wars to student fights the halls are always filled with excitement.

Fashion Trends

Retro was the key to style, with both the 60s and 70s leading the way.

Many types of shoes were popular. Filas led tennis shoes, while clunky and canvas shoes and sandals were other big choices.

Baggy shorts with crew socks mimicked the look of college and professional basketball players.

Bevis and Butthead regained popularity with the release of their new movie, Bevis and Butthead Do America.

Flannel pants and shirts (and other various articles of clothing) became popular for their comfort and warmth in the cold winter weather faced by the students at HHS.

Bellbottoms, corduroy, and jumpers were a major hit with HHS students.

Denim kept up in HHS style. Most students wore denim all year long because of its versatility.

Most HHS students loved the look of overalls and baby doll T-shirts, as well as vinyl pants and tied up shirts.

Student Life

Sophomores Chad Lowery and Lyle Jones seem a little dumb-founded at the sight of a camera.

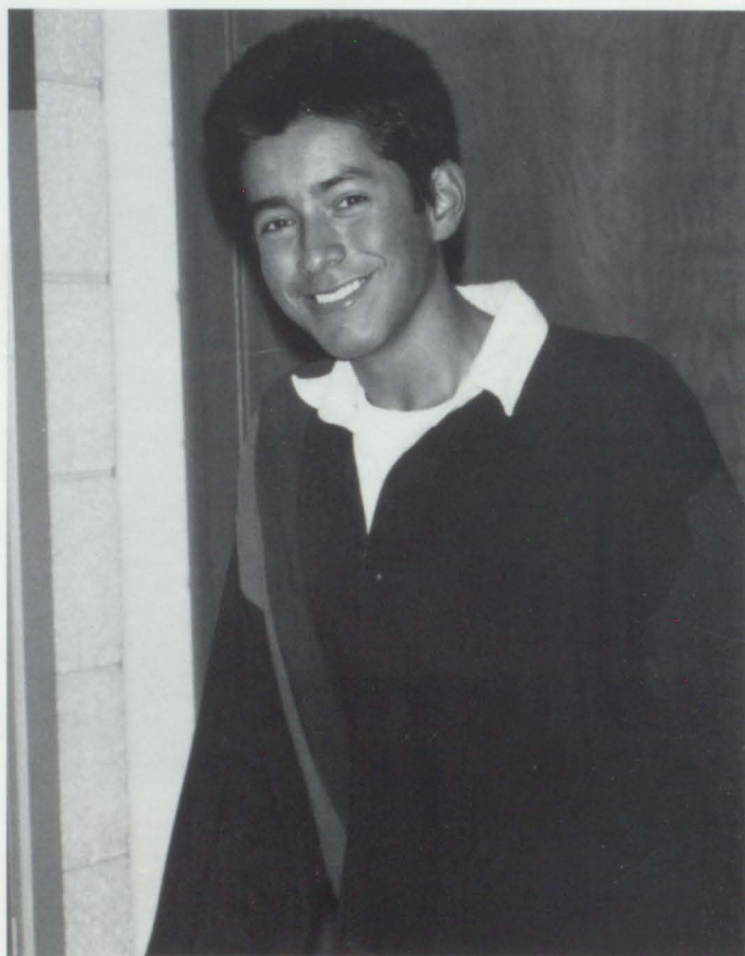

Ouch!

Senior Jonathan Dillinger and freshman Dalton Jones look like they're up to no good.

Senior Steven Graham shows what results from lack of sleep.

Junior April Harp and Senior Jennifer Wakefield sing "Another One Bites the Dust" as Senior Felicia Calton hits the floor.

Junior Larry Cryer can't quite cut it in art.

Student life at Hartville high is always exciting.

Whether it's a Student sitting through class, walking the halls, or hanging out at an after school activity, you can always find something to do with your Life. While some prefer going home to study, others spend their free-time at athletic events, dances, or just cruising downtown. Hartville excitement is always high. No matter what the circumstance, there is always something interesting happening. That's what makes H.H.S. such an exciting place to attend high school.

Children At Play

Elementary Student Life

Primping again.

Sixth grader Jennifer Burgard prepares herself for the Elementary Christmas performance.

Third grader Maine Hicks thinks life on the bleachers is hard work!

Fifth grader Kristy Connell ponders her next wish to grant.

Second grader Seth Moon looks a little wacky for spirit week.

Third grader Tommy Shinton imagines what it would be like to see through the eye of a bird.

Look! It's Gretel (a.k.a. Megan Baker) straight from the storybook.

Kindergarten princess Ashley Taylor parades around through the high school on Halloween.

New
to Experience.

From rest time to milk time, there are many different activities for Hartville Elementary youngsters to experience. Whether it's playing, giggling, chasing each other, or something as exciting as a field trip, all are adventures for Hartville Elementary students. Even with all the fun and excitement, learning is always taking place.

Lights Out!

Dances and Night Life

The Pommers nervously await their turn to perform at the Tip-Off Dance.

Senior Matt Kelley cautiously stocks the shelves at his after-school job.

Junior Marty Pedersen shows that "milk does a body good."

Dancing Duo:
Freshman Ben Hughes swings his partner, Junior Rebecca Hughes 'round and 'round.

Sophomore Diana Stewart and her date dance the night away.

The HHS Cheerleaders work up some excitement for the crowd at the Tip-Off Dance.

Senior Jimmy Lemons shows his masculinity as he pushes two carts at once.

Dances and Night Life

There is never a dull moment in Hartville, whether it's on the streets or at the school dances. The night life of Hartville students is truly exciting.

When driving through town, you had better be prepared, because there is no telling what your eyes might see.

You just might spot one of the many students who have after-school part-time jobs. These jobs help teach students responsibility that they can use to further their education. With this work, the students earn money to help them pay to enter the HHS dances.

At the dances, everyone seems to have a great time whether they are the wall flowers, who sit back and watch, or the wild ones who get out there and prove that there is no limit to the ways your body can move.

Upstage, Downtown

Fall Festival and Christmas

All Smiles:

Fall Festival Queen Brandy Dodson does her pageant wave for the crowd.

Fall Festival Court: Josh Hughes, JoAnna O'Quinn, Jay Horn, Somer Shepperd, Nick Dolan, Queen Brandy Dodson, Rick Coltrane, Hollie Hilliard, Rodney Douglas, and Cheryl Hudson.

Fall Festival Candidates Somer Shepperd and Cheryl Hudson are side-tracked by something or someone in the crowd.

Fall Festival Candidates Hollie Hilliard and JoAnna O'Quinn enjoy riding in the parade.

The 1996 Lady Eagles enjoy leading the parade and savoring the last moments of their third place title in state.

Miss Merry Christmas Alana Henderson smiles to the crowd.

Little Miss Merry Christmas Joni Dixon waves to the crowd along the parade route.

Grovespring Little Miss Merry Christmas Shaila Irvin, Grovespring Miss Merry Christmas Shana Sheppard, Molly Beasley, Danne Mayor, Alicia Delcour, Amanda Sheets, and Brittany Lander.

Story Box Inset: Kindergartener Drew Widner was voted Winter Prince

Dances, Parades, and Queens Make Events More Fun

This year the Fall Festival landed on October 19 with a bang, featuring a Wild West Show. There were plenty of activities for everyone to participate in. In the morning, people could enjoy bake sales, crafts, and music, followed by a parade and the high school olympics.

Due to conflicting events, the dance was held the previous week and the crowning of the Fall Festival queen was held. Sophomore Brandy Dodson was chosen queen.

Parades and royalty were common ground for both Fall Festival and Christmas. Junior Alana Henderson was selected the high school Miss Merry Christmas, and fourth grader Joni Dixon was selected Little Miss Merry Christmas. Parades were held at both Grovespring and Hartville—surprisingly a week apart, with Hartville's on December 9 followed by Vespers and Grovespring's on December 14.

1996-97 Homecoming Queen Mindy Cutbirth

And the 1997
Homecoming
Queen
is...

February 7, started out to be a wintery day. The weatherman had predicted from 7 to 12 feet of snow. No one knew if the night would precede. But with high hopes Eagle fans poured in to the gym.

The boy's basketball teams added another victory to their undefeated season, as they smashed their arch rivals the Mansfield Lions.

Between games the long-awaited ceremony began. The magical mood of the evening was accented through the blue and gold star decorations. The theme song, "Still in Love With You" by New Edition played softly in the background. All names of basketball players, pommers, cheerleaders, and managers were announced as they entered the gym. The exquisite candidates followed, each of them deserving of the crown. But the entire crowd knew who would win when announcers Jon Dillinger and Rodney Douglas called her name.

... Mindy Cutbirth.

Kindergarteners Drew Widner and Ashton McDaris served as crown-bearer and flower girl.

Retiring Queen, senior Jennifer Freeman, smiles for the camera.

Cheryl Hudson and Rebecca Hughes take part in a joint half-time routine by the pommers and cheerleaders.

A Time For Us

Prom

Juniors Whitney Adamson and Alana Henderson vote for the king and queen.

Juniors Misty Hudson and April Harp try to fix senior Jennifer Wakefield's fallen hair do.

1996-97 Prom King Grant Boyer and Queen Kelli Dugger.
Retiring King Rodney Douglas and Queen Amy Robertson congratulate the new king and queen.

1996-97 Prom King and Queen candidates: Josh Hughes, Kelli Dugger, Grant Boyer, Whitney Adamson, Wes Culver, Denise Jolley, B.J. Smith, Hollie Hillard, Jason Arnall, Candy Flake, Retiring King Rodney Douglas (who can't seem to bare giving up his crown), Retiring Queen Amy Robertson.

"Secret Garden"--
Bruce Springsteen.

For many, April 26, 1997, was a long awaited event. The candidates were nervous about who would win, and everyone was worried about how they would look. The juniors spent the day before decorating the gym, making sure it would look just right for the seniors. Everything turned out to be beautiful (even if the arch did collapse on Jennie Faust).

Junior class president Hollie Hillard got the evening off to a start by giving the welcoming speech, followed by the acceptance from the senior class president Shaun Coltrane.

The hug last year by cousins Rodney Douglas and Amy Robertson must have caught on because this year's winners Grant Boyer and Kelli Dugger congratulated each other with a handshake.

Following the coronation dance most everyone went to Springfield to eat, bowl, or some other activity to finish off their evening.

Rodney Douglas is enjoying his last few moments of royalty as he escorts Amy Robertson.
Mrs. Lana Arnall, sponsor to the junior class, helps out by filling the punch fountain.

Junior Ryan Zinnert asks, "What did I do?"
Obviously senior Chad Calton is too sexy for his vest!

Curtain Call

Graduation

Good-bye for now, but not forever.

On May 16, 1997, 50 seniors ended their 13 year journey. President Shaun Coltrane gave the welcoming speech, which was followed by the band playing "Change the World." The senior band members played "I Believe I Can Fly" one last time together. The choir sang "Power of a Dream" featuring seniors. Next, Valedictorian Robbie Jones gave his speech followed by Salutatorian Danielle Jones. The diplomas were passed out and then Vice President Chad Calton gave the closing speech. Caps were thrown and the last parting hugs and tears were shared.

{***The seniors would like to thank the senior sponsors Mrs. Dryer, Mrs. Wayne and Mr. Dixon for their support over the last 4 years. The senior class shared a special friendship and will always be together if only in memory. Last, but not least, always remember that the seniors are like "bullets" speeding toward their goals in life.}

Closing Night

Project Graduation

The only thought that is running through Nicole Jones' mind is, "I'm in the money, I'm in the money!!!"

"Peek-a-boo, I see you," says junior April Harp.

This tasmanian devil (Robbie Jones) is thinking, "Me hungry!"

Sophomore Diana Stewart laughs and points out to junior Jeremy Long their friends' surprise.

For this roly polly, there doesn't seem to be any way to find their feet.

"Hit me," says Chad Calton while playing Black Jack.

Answer

Quicker Picker-Upper:

Sophomore Chad Lowery wonders how he ever got himself into this mess.

Life is like a fairytale: We all live out our own story. While some dream of a Prince Charming and being swept off their feet, others spend their story running from the wicked witches of life.

Though we are all the same in that we experience the same emotions: happiness, sadness, fear, hope, joy and pain, we are all different. And one of the biggest differences is in the way we live our lives regardless of the emotions we experience.

"I'll get you!"

Third grader Tommy Shinton looks up innocently as he pins down Jeremy Johnson during recess.

A little to the left:

Senior Amy Robertson plans out her latest creation from shop: a coffee table.

"You lookin' at me?!"

Answer

"This is gonna be great!"
Sophomores Karen Estes and
Katy Witte work on their English II project from King Arthur.

Life is like a novel. There are many daily situations that reflect the comp of novels. For instance, people go through the course of their lives. Most rely on their friends for support, while others try to take on the mental aspects of life in isolation from the outside world. Regardless of which path you decide to take, your life will always resemble a novel.

$1+1=2$ ,  $2+2=4$ ...

Eighth graders Angie Dolan and Nathan Jones find that their Pre-Algebra assignment is quite comical.

Making Sure:

Junior Justin Sinning checks his answer out in the back of the Trig book.

Reality Check!
Senior Jamie Morrell dreams about a life after sociology class.

These students received a blue ribbon on their entry: Jarod Kellum, Tanya Frerichs, Amy Robertson, Crystal Adamson, Jeff Palmer, Beth Schlachter, Christopher Merced, Ben Hughes, Brent Kinser, Jamie Morell, Taffie Miller, Heath Coy, Luke Harris, Jeremy Horton, Tiffany Neill, Anthony Davis, and Brooke Gleason.

Justin Hughes received top honors with Best in Show.

Jared Shaver received a trophy for Best in Woodworking I Division.

Jason Arnall received a trophy for Best in Woods II Division.

Industrial Art/ Art

What is the best thing about Art or Industrial Arts?

"I think it is when you just finish your your project, you get to see your ability."

"Getting to make wooden shoes and not having any homework."

"Art is cool because it is one of my many talents!"

BOBBY MOORE

JENNIFER BAX

JONATHON DUGGER

Sophomore Nathan Hudson gets down as Junior Candy Flake traces him for an art project.

Sophomore Glenna Masuch uses chalk to create a colorful montage.

Just Sittin' around. . .
Jeff Wilson concentrates on the class' instructions.

Zoned in, Becky Long focuses in on her Business assignment.

Daniel Kelsay is in a daze while in Keyboarding.

Mrs. Ramona Whayne shows her best side to the camera.

The Scarlet Letter

If you could write a novel, what would it be about? Why?

"About a king, knights, and love because I like the idea of knights and their love for ladies."

"Love, because it's what the world's about. You only find the perfect one once."

BRANDONMASNER

KELBYSHAVER

Frankie Washburn is educating himself on the life of King Arthur.

Working eagerly, Misti Wynn finishes her Business work.

Juniors Whitney Adamson and Hollie Hilliard share a good laugh in Trig.

Mr. Miller demonstrates the correct way to do the day's assignment.

Sophomores Brooke Davis, Jason Cryer, and Dusti Austin look up from working diligently to laugh at Mr. Boyer.

The three musketeers(a.k.a. Jeffery Palmer, Travis Taylor, and Luke Harris) strike the same pose.

Dr. Jeckyl and Mr. Hyde

What do you like most about your math, physics, or science class?

"I like my algebra II class because the class is so small that I can ask tons of questions."

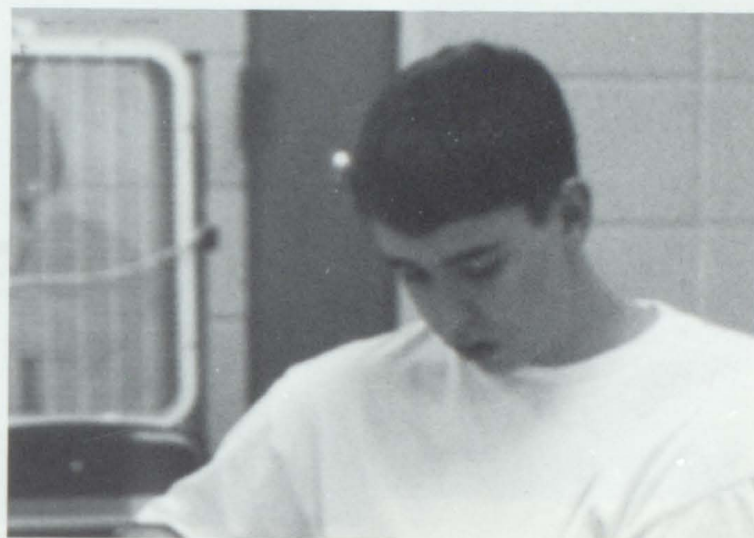

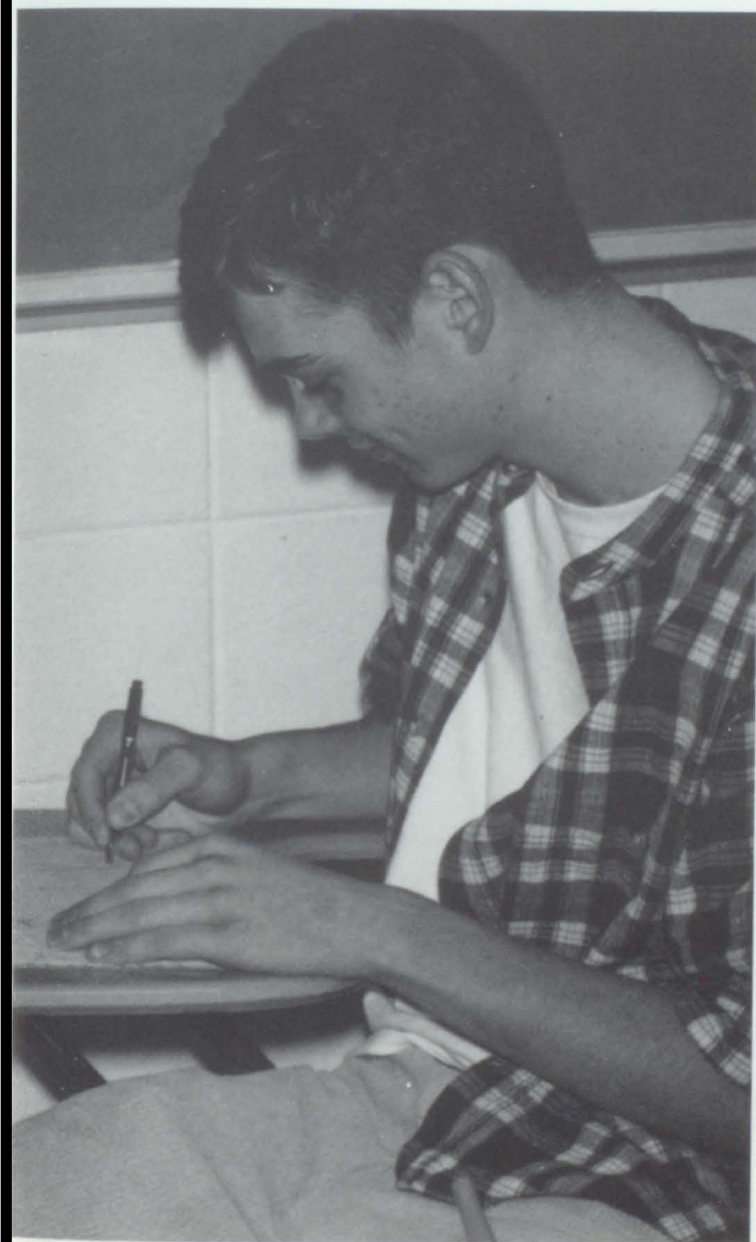

"I like my physics class because Mr. Miller offers a lot of help, and the class is petite."

"I like my biology class because of my love for animals."

ALANA HENDERSON

CHARLES STORRIE

Junior Justin Bonnarens must find something amusing in his homework.

Senior Robbie Jones works intently on a physics assignment.

ARE YOU SERIOUS? . . .
Freshman Anthony Davis wonders
"Why would anyone waste all that tea?"

Eighth grader Logan Harris concentrates on his history assignment.

Freshmen Bryan Lenox, LaDonna Martin, Dan Christmen, Robbie Davis, Natalie Farr, Jessica Jemes, and Monica Senter decide to make studying a "group effort."

Junior Misty Hudson and Senior Charles Storrie make history by actually working in sociology.

History and P.E.

Freshman Justin Fullington shows his talent in shooting a lay-up.

Where did the ladder go? Seniors Justin Hughes and Shaun Coltrane help Junior Kyle Mays get a feel of the rim.

Junior Trae Sampson pays more attention to the ball than balance.

Karen Estes carefully checks over her shoulder for any oncoming vehicles.

Jerrit Lee and W.J. Lawler cautiously check the engine for loose plugs or wires.

Jonathan Dugger graciously attempts to parallel park.

Katy Witte seems to enjoy the concept of driving.

Driver's Ed/Home Ec

"I enjoy riding in the car with Coach Taylor because he talks to me."

JENNIFER MORELAND

"You don't have to do any work in Home Ec."

MINDY LEMONS

"The best part about Driver's Ed is being in the gym watching the 5th Grader kickball games."

B.J. HICKS

"Wow! Two thumbs up!"

"I'm confused!"

Sophomore Diana Stewart tries to figure out what she has spelled with all those letters.

There is always an activity going on here at HH&S, and most of them start with clubs, which begin their year with induction ceremonies, then move on to more involved activities, such as organization weeks (FBLA, SADD) and fundraising events. Then it's finally time for contests, where HH&S always shines.

Clubs make the year go by faster for students and provide an alternate to the routine of daily school life while promoting extra curricular time with friends.

The Hartville chapter of Future Business Leaders of America is a very active organization in it's second year. There are 33 members working hard to make their club successful. In February, FBLA sponsored the "March of Dimes" fight against birth defects by holding a week of exciting activities. Through their efforts, $1,300 was raised for this wonderful cause.

FBLA members also did well in contests. Several members received awards and a few of these qualified for state contest.

FFA continued making a positive influence in the lives of its members through its goal of developing premier leadership, personal growth, and career success through Ag. education. These skills were developed by participating in various events such as: Fruit sales--which taught members to be good money managers, FFA Week--an opportunity for community involvement, and Contest teams--which helped students to become more aware of the changing world around them.

SCIENCE CLUB AND T.A.'S

30 Science Club
members;
32 T.A.s;
62 students dedicated to hard work.

The Science Club members and Teacher's Aides all work very hard at what they do. The only difference is T.A.'s work hard all year or for a semester, and science club is only for a quarter out of the year. Many students are active in both. These people use their TA hour to work on their science project if the teacher they are an aide for doesn't need them for something else, although the T.A.'s don't receive ribbons or awards for their work like science club, they work just as hard.

Peer Helpers/Stu.Co.

"The final test of a leader is that he leaves behind him in other men the conviction and the will to carry on."

-Walter Lippmann

What do student council members and peer helpers have in common? Well, there are many differences but the main similarity is that each member of both clubs are looked at as role models. Like Congress, students elect people they trust into office to make good decisions. Not only do the students elect officials for student council but by secret ballot they elect students they feel they can confide in--peer helpers. The students involved in peer helpers not only listen to problems of teenagers, but by being Hi-Steppers, they help educate the elementary students on how to deal with certain situation including self-esteem, emotions and drug abuse. In both clubs the members hold many responsibilities and show that they can be leaders and friends!

Beta Club and Choir

Two HHS clubs committed to giving the performances of their lives.

Both Beta Club and Choir take part in events that stress the importance of using talents. Beta Club is based on students academic excellence, requiring each student to maintain at least a 3.5 GPA. By being in this organization, students learn to help others—especially the St. Jude's Children through a candy fundraiser. Choir stresses not only the singing, but also music theory. Students are put to the test every day through contests and concerts. Both, then, stress doing your best at all times.

HIGH SCHOOL BAND

FOR WHOM THE BELLS TOLL

The high school band's year began in August with the annual band camp. The marching song was a Latin mix of "Los Banditos" and "Brazil." The flag corp received new boots and flags in time for their last competition. The band got placed only second at Stockton, but won first place at the Washington marching festival and SMSU. To top off the year the band recieved invitations to perform at various locations, but performed the National Anthem at a Kansas City Royals' game on May 3.

WHAT ARE THE ADVANTAGES
AND DISADVANTAGES OF
BEING ON THE YEARBOOK
STAFF?

YOU GET TO WORK WITH SOME GREAT
PEOPLE, BUT A
LOT OF TIMES
YOU WORK
UNDER CON-STANT PRES-SURE.

--TYLER

THE ADVAN-TAGE OF
WORKING ON THE YEARBOOK
IS THAT YOU
LEARN RE-SPONSIBILITY
WHILE YOU
ARE GETTING

HAVE TO DECIDE WHAT
TO USE ON YOUR PAGE AND WHERE TO PUT IT.

Answer

It's all in the wrists:

Junior Mindy Cutbirth attempts a pump shot at sectionals against the Newburg Wolves.

Sports are an important part of the HHS student life, as well as the life of the community. The basketball teams are followed to every game. The cheerleaders and pomers provide school spirit for all. Baseball and softball have also become important parts to the sport scene. Look for a good game when you watch them. Wherever you go in Hartville, you can find HHS sports.

C'mon Batter!

Senior Robbie Jones, a.k.a. "Hobie" waits for his chance to turn a double-play.

Fantastic!

The HHS cheerleaders and pomers leave the floor after performing an amazing routine for Homecoming.

Hustle:

Junior Kyle Mays anticipates his next pass at the state basketball tournament. The boys ended their season placing 3rd; the girls, placing 4th.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

The Eagles Do State Basketball "Double Time"

The road to state began when both the Eagles and Lady Eagles were ranked first in the district tournament. The teams then went on to win at the sectionals, held in Rolla. It looked to be a repeat of last year when both teams made it to Springfield. But the verdict changed when both teams won.

The senior players and cheerleaders show their newly received plaques.

To show their support of both teams going to state, Mr. Joel Miller and Mr. Larry Mays did some shaving.

The varsity Lady Eagles proudly represented HHS for the second consecutive year at the state basketball playoffs.

The most memorable moment from state for me was...

In the locker room; we were so upset because we knew that, being our senior year, we (Nicole Jones, Sandy Weaver, and I) would never play together again. But there were also a lot of great things about state, like the boys going with us and getting to go two years in a row.

--Sr. Amy Robertson

What I was thinking when I received my medal...

I felt so fortunate to be a part of such a great basketball program that had a record-setting year.

--Jr. Wesley Culver

My most memorable moment from state was...

Playing in front of all the people. But especially, it was when Coach Keith had to hold the ice packs on Mindy's (Cutbirth) tailbone after she injured it.

--Jr. Kelli Dugger

When they placed the medal around my neck I was thinking...

I'm so glad that we could accomplish such a great goal my senior year.

--Sr. Mark O'Connor

Spring Concerts

Filled with music, the evening of April 24 was the choral concert. The concert began with soloists and an ensemble who received I and II ratings at District Music Festival. The choir then performed their contest pieces and two special arrangements.

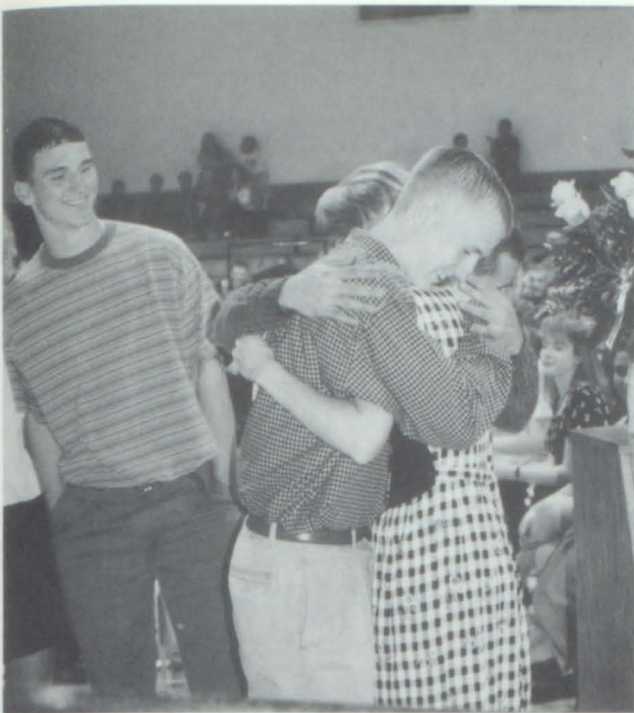

Following a short intermission, the second and third grade classes presented a musical called "On the Right Track." The musical also involved two high school students, senior Danielle Jones (Miss Jones) and junior Mat Herrman (Doc Martin).

A special thanks to Mrs. Hardy and Mrs. Hoskins, who spent time on this project.

{***We would like to formally apologize to Mrs. Hardy and all who participated in the Choral Spring Concert for the absence of pictures representing the evening. Due to camera difficulties the film from this event was destroyed. Our sincere regrets, the Eagle staff.)

Friends smile at you.
They like your face.
They want to be with you
Any old place.

Friends have fun with you.
Friends share.
They're glad when you're happy-
When you're sad, they care.

If you're a friend,
Then you care, too.
That's why your friends
Are glad you're you!

Don't Quit
When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're treading seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest if you must, but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As ever one of sometimes learns,
And many a fellow turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out.
Don't give up though the pace seems slow-
You may succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man;
Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup;
And he learned too late when the night came down,
How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out-
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the flight when you're hardest hit,-
It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

Mom, Dad, Travis, and Casey

This hasn't been the easiest year on us, but you came shining through. No one could be prouder that your father and I.
From heaven and earth.....

We Love You!!!

Time is not measured by the passing of years but by what one achieves.

Congratulations Heather!!!

We are very proud of you and love you very much.

Love,

Mom, Meme, Stacy, and Lisa

Jennifer,

Here you are ready to start a new part of your life. Always know that we love you and are very proud of you. We thank God for the privilege of having you as our daughter. Good luck and God bless you in all that you do.

Love always,

Mom, Dad, Christina, and John

Creating a Classic

Colophon

The 168-page 1997 Eagle with the title "Creating a Classic" and theme of literature was created by the Hartville High School Eagle staff and was printed by Jostens yearbooks of Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Underclassmen portraits were taken by Baldwin's Studios of Springfield, Missouri. Senior Pictures, clubs pictures and class officer pictures were taken by Hal Wagner Studios of Bridgeton, Missouri. The high school band and flag corp pictures were taken by Connie's Portraits of Marshfield, Missouri. Sports group pictures were taken by Arena Photography of Springfield, Missouri. The Eagle staff would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Larry Mays for thier support of the staff throughout the year, their representative, Tom Shields of Springfield, and plant consultant Kristen Ellerbee of the Winston-Salem team. We hope you have enjoyed this year's book, our 70th volume.
