STUDENT LIFE

Such a sweetheart... At the '00-'01 Homecoming dance, junior Ryan Wynn takes Betty for a spin on the dance floor.

Most freshmen are scared of the great pain of being stuffed in lockers, but Laura Place proves she has the ability to squeeze in one no big deal!

FCLLA and FACS members load the Hartville R-II bus after their trip to Springfield, Missouri's Nature Center.

While performing a scene from Grapes of Wrath in Mrs. Everett's College Prep class, seniors Jennifer Roberts and Jason Nichols portray Rose of Sharon and her dance partner.

If you could change 1 thing about the Hartville Student Body, what would it be, and why?

"If each member of the student body would begin to love others like they love themselves, the whole student body would experience success beyond measure in every area of life."

--Scott Keith

"I wish that every student would understand that everyone has something good to offer to our society, and that they would no longer judge each other on the clothes they wear or their popularity, academically or how well they play a certain sport. I think more respect and responsibility would be fostered through this attitude, and in turn less frustration and violence would be seen in our schools."

If you could change 1 thing about your school environment, what would it be and why?

We should either get recess or a better type of break other than P.A.T (preferred activity time.) P.S. Please give us longer lunches too, if I eat any faster I'm going to choke!

Sophomores Shawn Kennedy and John Storie work to finish their Algebra II homework before the end of 2nd hour.

Physics

No longer being an independent study course, physics was taught this year by first-year-teacher Luke Boyer. In Mr. Boyer's physics class, such principles as kinematics, friction, circular motion, vectors, and thermodynamics were studied. Along with learning theories, physics students conducted lab experiments in order to observe these principles in action. In addition to classroom work, Mr. Boyer also instituted the P Games, in which Physics students competitively explored the concept of extreme physics.

1 Culture Meets Another English and French

Began by Mrs. Everett, the Book Club was a new addition to Hartville High this year. During the year, the groups selections were: To Kill A Mockingbird, Fahrenheit 451, My Name is Asher Lev, Redwall, and The Testament. The prices of the books ranged from five to eight dollars. Students were given time to read each book and then the group met to discuss it. Over the course of a year, approximately thirty students participated at various times. "I think the Book Club was a great opportunity for students to converse about a wide variety of topics. Plus, there were doughnuts there....they were YUMMY!" said Meagan Rippee. Left: During a book club meeting, sophomores Ashley Wilson, Jenna Shaver, and Jennifer Taylor and senior Dustin Cook laugh at Mrs. Everett's comment.

For a skit in College Prep, First Day of School Barbie (senior Jennifer Hutsell) finds herself defenseless as Dmitrix the Evil Cabbage Patch (senior Alysha Buttram) bullies her by taking her lunch box and pulling out her piggy tails. Sitting silently in the background, senior Holly Boyster is entertained by her classmates as she waits for her scene to begin.

Not only a hatrack, junior Jessica Lillard aids junior Malea Jordan in a western style version of Arthur Miller's The Crucible.

Center:
Perfecting her acting skills, sophomore Dana Hudson performs a skit on resolving conflict in English II with her partner Beth Kinser.

Far Right:
"Quack, quack!"
As a punishment for leaving his book in class, 8th grader Nicholas Lansdown is forced to walk like a duck in order to get his book back.

In their 4th hour English I class, freshmen Casey Freeman and Keisha Fullington throw their fashion sense out the window for their project on Edgar Allan Poe.

"Sweet Home Alabama"

In first hour French class, juniors Dustin Young and Rodney Cravens put on a concert for their classmates with mop-handle microphones.

That is definitely your color!

Teaching the class how to put on makeup, junior Shawnette Hudson uses her model, sophomore Heath Jones, for her applied communications demonstrative presentation.

"The Wonder Years..."

With proper etiquette, freshman Michael Brennan takes a trip back to his Kindergarten days of coloring as he struggles to stay in the lines for an English I project.

Experiencing life without eyesight, junior Jackie Tooley attempts to write his name on the chalkboard in his applied communications class while blindfolded. His classmate, junior Anthony Arrigoni watches from behind.

If you traveled to a foreign country, what would be the 1 phrase you would know how to say and why?

"'Penguins?' Just to see their reactions. >=)"

--Kirby Willis,
Junior

"I would know how to say 'I don't know' because it would be the best thing for me to say. I wouldn't want to say 'Yes' to something and get myself in trouble."

1 Sweet Sound Choir

President: Audra Thompson
Vice President: Samantha Dugger
Treasurer: Jessica Lillard
Secretary: Cody Cottengim

During a Vesper's Service the Hartville High School choir performs "I Will Remember You" by Sarah McLachlan.

At the start of a home game senior Nicole Lee sings the National Anthem.

In the Vesper's Service, senior Jessica Daniels performs on the flute.

Singing the National Anthem, choir director Miss Sugg participates in a Veteran's Day tribute.

"It took us forever to learn it," said junior Leanne Giffin after the HHS choir performed "Jump, Jive, and Wail" on the courthouse lawn during Fall Festival.

During choir, Miss Sugg helps sophomores Cody Cottengim, Brandon Fillinger, junior Sabrina Ford, and senior Nicole Lee practice their ensemble for District Contest.

As part of the entertainment at Fall Festival the HHS choir sings "I Will Remember You."

The 1 experience I'll never forget about Choir this year was when Mrs. Sugg finally held hands with Danny. (But only to arm wrestle.)

--John Sherwood,
Sophomore

The 1 experience I'll never forget about Choir this year was when I asked Miss Sugg to go on a date with me to Sonic, she wouldn't.

The 1's Who Made This Yearbook Staff

Relaxing in the shade... While other staff members are chillin' in the pool, sophomore Cynda Crapo refuses to get in the water after her long day at yearbook camp. (We tried!)

Counting fund raising money, Freshman, Cared Jilaxton, proves that every penny counts.

Sleeping on the job
Sophomore Reagan Mippee gets in some z's after all of her work was done, of course!

Closing her eyes in disgust, junior Jalea Mordan checks to see if the names and numbers match up in the annual fundraiser.

- 1 After the yearbook staff's Christmas gift exchange, junior Geanne Liffin can't wait to try on her new toe socks.
- 2 Working on their part-time job as Dr. Pepper promoters, junior Fecky Bisher and sophomore Fasey Creeman find they might have a future in Hollywood.
- 3 "HEADS UP!" Sophomore Clicia Aervantes sends a frisbee flying during a staff pool party, compliments of Mrs. Michaelis.
- 4 Mailing advertising spreads, junior Fecky Bisher works continuously during seventh hour.

1 Musical Bunch High School Band

The band delivers yet another outstanding performance for all of the local veterans in the New Gym for the '01 Veteran's Day Service.

Marching in unison, the H.H.S. Marching Brigade steps to the beat of the cadence while awaiting the command to play their selection for the gathered crowd at the Hartville Christmas Parade.

Playing her guitar, senior Kirby Willis really gets in the Eagle spirit as she wears her usual Pep Band outfit; a boa and leather boots.

Trumpeting Trio... Eighth graders Dusty Curtis, William Vandergrift, and Ashley Jones pull their weight by playing 3rd in one of the Vespers' Christmas selections.

KINGER FARMS ARE PROUD TO SUPPORT HARTVILLE SCHOOLS.

GOOD LUCK EAGLES!

Eighth grader Christina Smith adjusts her bassoon while tuning before the band's performance at the Vespers' Service to ensure that she will sound her best.

Dressed in both her Christmas spirit and attire, director Mrs. Dixon gives her best for the audience and for her students at the annual Vespers Service, held in the New Gym.

Overcoming the obstacles of the job, drum majorette Whitney Coy, junior, commands and directs the band while marching backwards.

The H.S. Pep Band shows its support for the Eagles' Varsity Team by performing to The Hey Song during warm-up between games.

1 Voice from the Crowd

FCA/SADD/PEP CLUB

The FCA members have a little fun and get a little dirty as they play a game during one of their meetings in the old gym after school. They were working on improving their teamwork skills while trying to join a circle with a set number of people and be seated before time was up.

Senior Amber Jones and Angie Dolan introduce SADD guest Marcus Engeland his guide dog Dasher to the student body before beginning the assembly. Engel lost his eyesight in a car accident due to a drunk driver.

Freshman Racquel Jones gives classmate Kristy Connell a pick-me-up as they stride down the hall during SADD Fun Night.

Senior Dustin Cook and sophomore Jonathan Baker take a break from the games and excitement of SADD Fun Night and sit down to enjoy a snack. Cook and Baker were watching the film Monty Python as their source of entertainment.

Sophomore Jennifer Burgard, senior Erica Oesterreicher, and freshman Laura Place appear to be a little too comfortable as they walk drowsily down the hallway. The girls were dressed up for Pajama Day during SADD's Red Ribbon Week.

Pep Band members play "We Will Rock You" in support of the Varsity Boys at the start of game warm-up.

Sophomores Jessica McClanahan, Cody Nutt, and Jennifer Burgard send a peaceful message as they dress for 70's Day, sponsored by the H.H.S. Pep Club.

Pep Club members Leighann Dugger and Lauren Helsley boogie down with the H.H.S. cheerleaders as they attempt to liven up the crowd.

Freshmen Pep Band members Dustin Coltrane and Ritchie Russell play at their best for the Eagle Team as they await the start of the game.

FCA members remain seated in the old gym bleachers as Coach Quessenberry explains the rules to the game they are getting ready to play.

"I believe that one voice can make a difference because people will listen when someone speaks, but it depends on who is speaking. A professional celebrity or athlete will have a much greater impact on someone than if a local person spoke. Though it could be the exact opposite. People have role models no matter what their age. We all admire someone, so if that someone happens to speak that one admires, one will listen."

--Jason Nichols, 12th

"I believe that one voice can make a difference because if one speaks their mind, chances are that other people might feel the same but never did say anything."

--Will Hickman,
Sophomore

Stealing the ball from a Houston Tigers player, sophomore Tiffany Nelson and freshman Stephanie Young contribute to an Eagle's victory. Hartville won 54-45.

Open and unguarded, sophomore Dana Hudson scores with a 3-point shot, helping her team to a 48-27 victory.

① During a close game against Cabool, freshman Amber Ince soars through the lane as she attempts to close the narrow point gap with a lay-up. Hartville lost by a mere six points. ② Breaking away from her defensive player, sophomore Jennifer Lillard takes advantage of the open long range jump-shot. ③ In a special Saturday away game at Richland, freshman Kellee Chandler prevents an opponent from attempting a shot. On this day, all four Hartville basketball teams played and the Eagles came home with four victories. ④ Three's a crowd for this Plato Eagle as junior Jessica Lillard and sophomores Katie Davis and Tiffany Nelson help one another out and surround the opponent, making a pass for her impossible.

"One ritual we do before every game is pray that our team won't get hurt and the other team won't get hurt too bad."

--Brittany Hensley,
Freshman

Racing down the court, senior Kayla Ward attempts to out-distance her Seymour Tigers opponent. Despite their efforts, the Eagles were not able to pull away from the Tigers and lost 51-65.

Making it look easy, sophomore Katie Davis dares a Plato opponent to take the challenge of guarding her. Hartville won easily with a 32 point victory margin.

1 Go-get-em attitude Girls Basketball

Using her height advantage to score inside, senior Raven Davis shows she is not afraid of this Cabool player as she shoots for two over the opponent. The Eagles won 48-35.

Getting rough and tough, freshman Sarah Simpson finds herself buried underneath a mound of players as she struggles to maintain possession of the ball. Her teammate, freshman Stephanie Lemons, aids in the rescue.

A Lady Bulldogs player fails to block junior Jessica Vandergrift's two point shot during a home game against Gainesville. This was the Junior Varsity's fourth win out of their first five games.

Concentrating on her defender's every move, senior Angie Dolan drives to the basket. As a senior, Dolan proved herself to be a leading scorer and became known for her 3-point shots.

"One ritual we do before home games is we (mostly J.V. players) go to Kellee's (Chandler) and chill. Before away games I usually chill with Kaven (Davis). We all try to get our 'game faces' on."

--Dana Hudson,

Gracing the crowd with one of her signature smiles, senior Amber Jones elicits a cheer from the Hartville crowd.

1 Third graders Kyra Giffin and Jennifer Biekert get the giggles while dancing at a Hartville High school game. 2 At the '01 Homecoming, junior Julie Russell reaches for the sky while her teammates help create a perfect performance.

3 Gimme an E, gimme an A... The Hartville cheerleaders lead everyone in the school fight song.

4 Senior Laura Baker and sophomores Danielle Fine and Alicia Cervantes decorate the gym wall for Homecoming.

"One of my most memorable cheerleading moments was the boys game against Seymour when the gym was packed and our Eagle fought Seymour's Tiger between games!"

--Laura Baker, Senior

"One thing I'll never forget as a cheerleader is when we got to cheer for the boys at the Tournament of Champions."

--Christina Wakefield, Senior

The cheerleaders create a beautiful formation while cheering at Homecoming.

Senior Jennifer Hutsell notices the camera while the rest of the squad join her in the "Hoop is Up" cheer.

"There are so many! For the sake of not violating trust we have chosen to write about a memory that can be published. The last 4 years have been extraordinary. We've made friends, learned lessons, and grown up. The main lesson that sticks out to us is to never let someone tell you that you can't do something because of your age or background. Our best example of this would be that this past year at cheerleading camp our little squad from Hartville was nominated All American, including all 4 seniors. Also we, as a squad, were one of 10 squads chosen for the top team award. We would like our student body to remember to never let anyone set your standards for you. And always strive to do your best."

-- Amber Jones and Jennifer Hutsell, Seniors

- ① Pommers give another head-turning performance; dancing to "Here We Come."
- ② Sophomore squad members Shana Sheppard and Shawna Rank "strut their stuff" at the last home game of the season.
- ③ Sponsor Mrs. Whayne takes part in the squad's homecoming performance at the hand of junior gentleman Dustin Young.

The girls reach the height of their debut while performing to "Hot Boys Mix."

T'N Sync Team Pommers

Performing their famous signature move, senior Brian Cannon lifts classmate Akia Lane into the air.

Is this dancing or recess? The squad and their gentlemen have a little fun by forming a human merry-go-round during their homecoming performance.

Displaying their "muskles" Hartville pommers give their all to a half-time show.

The 1 thing that motivated me to become a pommer was that I was depressed that I wouldn't have Mrs. Wayne as a teacher anymore, and I wanted to have an excuse to see her as often as possible.

Akia Lane-12th

The 1 thing that motivated me to become a pommer was that I've always loved to dance ever since I was little, and I'm honored to be a pommer at Hartville High School.

Sophomore Heath Jones takes a hop to propel the ball to first base.

Senior Eric Henderson catches the ball just in time to get a force out on the runner.

1 THE WIND-UP! THE PITCH!
Junior Rodney Cravens shows the crowd his unique, yet superb pitching style.

2 Junior Dustin Young commands the field while pitching.

3 A job well done...

Junior Travis Burgard gives Coach Boyer a high five after hitting a high fly homerun.

4 Junior Chet Hicks scoops up the ball while guarding second and tagging out the runner. Very talented!

① Displaying the perfect infielding technique, senior shortstop Kayla Ward puts the lid on the ball as she fields the line- drive. ② Sophomore right fielder Courtney Davis moves to the ball to make the catch in the outfield. ③ Before heading off the the sectional game, sophomores Summer Hamilton and Tracy Jemes, freshman Casey Freeman, sophomores Jessica McClannahan and Tiffany Nelson, and senior Allyssa Doherty wave to the crowd.

Conference Champs

Senior pitcher Angie Dolan winds up and hurls another strike to the plate. Angie's ERA was 2.43. She averaged 1.3 strike-outs per inning, and was named the All-State Softball Team.

Celebrating a conference championship, a 1st place Sparta Tournament finish, and an undefeated spring season, members of the softball team including sophomores Adriana Adams, Andrea Venable, Jessica McClannahan and senior Kayla Ward enjoy dinner at Lambert's.

Illustrating the teamwork that made the Lady Eagles so successful, senior shortstop Kayla Ward tosses the ball to sophomore 2nd baseman Jessica McClanahan for the easy out.

Sophomore Summer Hamilton and freshman Tiffany Perkins watch as freshman Sarah Helsley catches a butterfly. There was a pep rally for the Lady Eagles before they went to the sectional game.

At the sectional game versus Ash Grove, senior Christina Wakefield smacks the ball into the outfield.

District Champions

After winning districts, the Lady Eagles proudly pose with their trophy. The title was clinched with a victory over Norwood. This district championship was the first one since 1987.

A #1 Team in the Making Junior High Basketball

1 Demonstrating her ball handling abilities, 7th grader Allison Dickinson dribbles the ball around a Niangua opponent in an attempt to make a lay-up.

2 8th grader Joni Dixon anticipates the rebound.

3 With a look of determination, 8th grader Lindsay Keith makes her way to the basket, with her eyes set on the goal. 4 7th grader Tamra Smith shows her strength as she struggles with an opponent for possession of the ball.

"I will miss when Coach Keith would wear cowboy boots to our games. (You can imagine what he looked like when he got mad and stomped on the court!)"

--Jessica Lane,
8th grade

"I will miss the fun that we had when playing basketball. This year as we played, our friendships became closer. Our players learned how to work together as a team and become closer to each other as friends."

--Lindsay Keith,
8th grade

Before their first game of the season, 8th graders Ashley Young, Christina Smith, Brandy Landers, and Lindsay Keith help each other to prepare and loosen up by giving each other backrubs. By the expression on 8th grader Jessica Lane's face, teammate Joni Dixon is not a masseuse in training!

Fifth grader Matt Nunn tries to keep the ball under control while sixth grader Stephen Rippee makes an attempt to steal it away.

Sixth grader Shanda Moon prepares to shoot a lay-up while classmate Katie Loomis is ready to get the rebound during pregame warm-ups.

1 Sixth grader Josh Shaver goes up for a lay-up while classmates Kendall Moore keeps Zach Jones from blocking the shot. 2 Third grader Jennifer Biekert prefers to use her own form when shooting the ball. 3 Third grader Devon Connell and fourth grader Jesse Jones have a full proof plan to prevent the defense, fourth grader Garrett Smalley, from getting the ball. 4 Third grader Shantell Kelsay is determined to prove that size isn't everything by getting around fourth grader Kristin Link's defense.

And they're off! Third grader Maggie Arnall leads the pack on a fast break while the defense tries to catch her.

It's mine...all mine!!! Sixth grader James Massey scoops up the basketball and protects it from the defense.

Mr. Pellham's Semi-Retirement

"I had always built things as a young boy, and while taking shop in high school, my teacher influenced me a great deal toward this profession. My expectations became reality as it has been great doing something I enjoy and helping others that have similar interests."

Mr. Keith Pellham has been teaching at Hartville High School for 30 years. "Helping students progress and accomplish goals from a simple stack of lumber to a finished product," is what he says he will miss the most. The one thing that he won't miss is "the major responsibility for student conduct and safety." Mr. Pellham's future plans are, "To get a shop of my own to work on various wood projects and also make time for several other hobbies that I have neglected." He also plans to teach part time next year. He would like to be remembered, "As being knowledgeable in my subject area and that I have been willing to work with any and all students and especially that I have been fair and honest in my dealings with students, parents, and staff."

--Marea Jordan

New Additions

"The classes should open the eyes of students to the job opportunities that are available out in the world," says superintendent Larry Mays. The new building and classes were first proposed by Mays to the board of education in October of 1999. After being approved for building, funds were voted on by the community through a bond issue totaling $1,000,000. The new buildings were not added because of an increase in enrollment, but it will benefit students already enrolled and enrolling in the future. "We hope to add new computers in to the elementary school and eventually add air conditioning throughout the district," says Mays. All that is now left to be accomplished is the act of stepping up to a new transition.

--Alicia Cervantes

Hail of a Year

"It was a hail of a day in Hartville," became the cliché. On April 3rd, a hail storm produced "hail large enough to have Rawlings printed on it," as KY3 meteorologist Braden Beck said. It caused extensive damage to vehicles and buildings in the Hartville area. The phenomenal hail storm was the grand finale to the tumultuous weather that hit the area during the 2000-2001 school year. Heat and winter weather caused 14 days of early dismissals or cancellations. "The heat makes it hard for students to concentrate, and there's not much learning taking place. When inclement weather forces cancellation, it's difficult to have the consistency needed for learning," says Principal John Link.

--Casey Freeman

A Final Farewell

Ms. Paula Zeller has been living in southwest Missouri for 24 years and has taught at Hartville High School for the last 16. She has loved being with all the students past and present and has enjoyed being a part of the Hartville High School faculty. "It's fun when everyone gets along. Working with the administration has been a pleasure." As counselor, there are many things that will be missed: "the contact with the students, being able to visit with them in the hall. She will also miss being able to visit them in the hall, and helping seniors apply for scholarships. I won't miss the paperwork though".

She appreciates everyone at the Hartville High School that she has worked with and also thank the community for all their support, especially with Project Graduation. Her last request is "that the students at Hartville High School would continue to strive for excellence."

--Leanne Giffin

Student of the Month

"We have great students here at Hartville High School and any way that we can recognize these students in front of their peers and in the local newspaper certainly is a plus for our school," says Principal John Link. Link initially implemented the Student of the Month program to honor the students for their hard work and/or improvements in everyday class work. Every month the faculty elects their choices for the month. Eight outstanding students are chosen, honored, and rewarded with both a meal with Mr. Link and special privileges, such as free admittance to all school events occurring in their elected month. The program is not meant only to reward those students who get straight A's, but it rewards students for good behavior and accomplishments and is therefore applicable to any member of the student body who is willing to put forth the effort. "I enjoy spending time with those groups," says Link. "Everyone has a chance, and the students are chosen by their teachers." Who better to choose than those who daily observe?

—Cynda Crapo

The 2000-2001 school brought a very successful season for the Hartville Academic Teams. Though the Hartville team was still fairly new to these academic competitions (second year) it was able to compete with many larger and more experienced teams. This year there were again four teams: two junior high teams (7th and 8th grade), and 2 high school teams (junior varsity and varsity.) This year the teams expanded their schedules to include more games and new competition. The high school varsity team also competed in 3A district meets, senior members Dustin Cook and Laura Baker were names to the all conference team. Thank you to all those who have made this past year a success for all the teams, especially coaches Deva Senter, Rhonda Taylor, and Leta Richardson. Congratulation to all of the players for another great year.

—Meagan Rippee

Spring Concert

During the performance of "America the Beautiful," by all three band groups, seniors Anzie Dolan, Jennifer Hutsell, and Amber Jones lead the crowd in the Pledge of Allegiance as they have been for the past four years.

Performing their trio they took to state music festival in Columbia, senior Desiree Sutherland, junior Kirby Willis, and sophomore Tiffany Nelson play "Moderato and Allegro" during the Spring Concert Prelude.

Overwhelmed by Mr. Mays and Coach Percival's out of place cymbal crashes, Mr. Link plugs his ears as he waits for his calmer triangle entrance.

Proudly receiving the Director's Award from Mrs. Dixon, seventh grader Amanda Sheets accepts the Jr. High's top honor.

Amber,
Yesterday you were my shadow, you were never far away. It's been very difficult for me to let you go.
I know you're eager to spread your wings and fly, always keep your dreams in sight, someday you'll touch the sky.
We've always been the best of friends and that we'll always be, I'll be your shadow now, whenever you need me!
We're so proud of you! You're a beautiful young lady, I thank the Lord for you every day. Always let Him be your guide in everything you do.

We Love You!

The Serenity Prayer

*God grant me the serenity to accept the things
I cannot change.
Courage to change the things
I can, and the wisdom to know the difference.
Living one day at a time,
Enjoying one moment at a time;
Accepting hardship as the pathway to peace.
Taking, as He did, this sinful world
as it is, not as I would have it;
Trusting that He will make all things right if I surrender to His will;
That I may be reasonably happy in this life. And supremely happy with Him forever in the next.*

*We are proud of you both!
Congratulations and Best Wishes

Don't Forget

LETTER FROM THE 2001
EDITOR

THE 2001 EAGLE HAS THE THEME OF 1, AND THE TITLE 1 TO REMEMBER WAS CREATED BY THE HARTVILLE HIGH SCHOOL YEARBOOK STAFF. THE PRESS RUN WAS 330 COPIES. PICTURES WERE PROVIDED BY CONNIE'S PORTRAITS OF MARSHFIELD, MO; BALDWIN'S STUDIOS OF SPRINGFIELD, MO; ARENA PHOTOGRAPHY OF SPRINGFIELD, MO; AND THE HARTVILLE HIGH SCHOOL YEARBOOK STAFF. THE STAFF WOULD LIKE TO THANK TOM SHIELDS, JEFF JASPER, AND KRISTEN ELLERBEE OF JOSTENS; MR. LARRY MAYS, MR. JOHN LINK, MRS. ANNETTE CULVER, MRS. JOAN MEIGS, MRS. CATHY HENDERSON, AND MRS. LINDA MCCLANAHAN OF HARTVILLE HIGH SCHOOL AND ALL ADVERTISERS. I WOULD LIKE TO SAY A SPECIAL THANKS TO THE STAFF AND THEIR PARENTS FOR HELPING TO MAKE THE YEARBOOK A SUCCESS. AND OF COURSE A VERY BIG THANKS TO OUR SECOND MOTHER MRS. MICHAELIS, YOUR LOVE AND SUPPORT HAS HELPED MAKE THIS YEAR GREAT. I WOULD LIKE TO APOLOGIZE FOR ANY MISTAKES IN THE BOOK. IT'S ALSO MY HOPE THAT ANYONE WHO HAS ATTENDED HARTVILLE OR HELPED IN ITS SUCCESS IN THE YEAR 2001 HAS MADE IT "1 TO REMEMBER."
