EL LEON

The Lapse of Time

Presented by the Annual Staff

As the sands of time drop steadily in the Mansfield hourglass, we enjoy taking a moment to look over the fallen grains one by one. Each grain stands for a precious moment of time spent - whether it was beneficial or not was up to you. Many were for happy moments, some for sad, regardless of their meaning they passed steadily on. There are times when we would like to relive a few of these moments, but time waits for no man.

As you turn the pages of this yearbook, we hope it will help you to relive some of these lost moments, and that each word will help you hold forever dear your memories in this, the 1958-59 edition of "The El Leon."

Miss Jan Short
Mansfield High School
Mansfield, Missouri

Dear Miss Short:

Gamma Beta of Kappa Alpha Order wishes to thank you for the honor you have bestowed upon us in the selection of your yearbook queen. The selection was a hard decision to make.

Knowing the idea some people have toward fraternities, being carefree, we have put much serious thought into our selection.

Thank you again for the chance to promote goodwill at Mansfield High School.

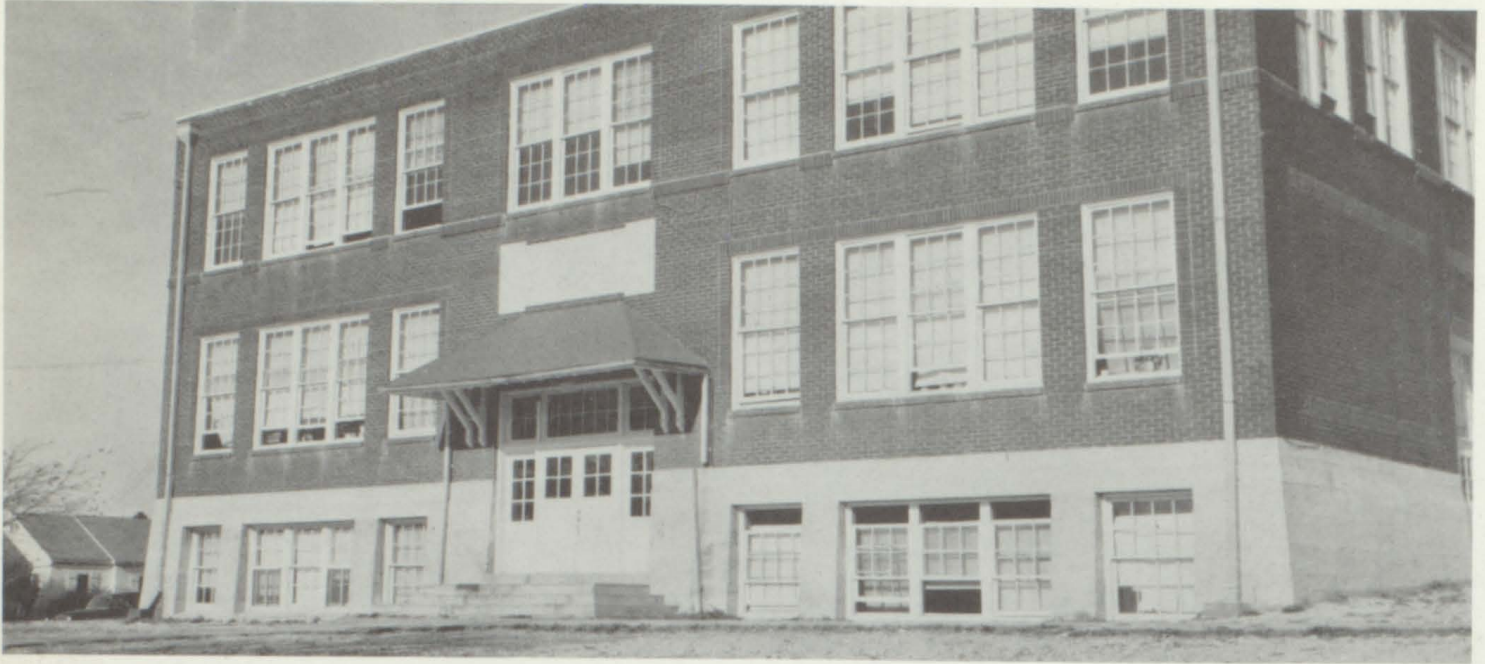

Sincerely yours,

Robert L. Curley

TIME WAITS FOR NO ONE; NEITHER DID WINTER

The beginning of the 1958-59 school year was greeted with smiles of enthusiasm.

The cooler weather brought with it sweaters and bobby-sox, long sleeved shirts and school jackets.

The skill of the typing class increases with diligent (?) practice.

At the close of ball season, a banquet was given for the members of the ball team.

The boys had worked hard all season, and everyone agreed that they richly deserved the honor of this banquet.

BARBARA BENNETT

Homecoming Queen

Homecoming

Queen, Barbara Bennett, was presented with a bouquet of red carnations to commemorate St. Valentines Day.

Terry Brown, Captain, crowns Barbara Homecoming Queen of 1958-1959.

And after the crowning comes the traditional kiss. Whoops---there goes the crown!!!

Then the "Coronation March" starts again, and the Queen and her attendants are escorted by the members of the ball team to their seats of honor.

Memories

The queen and her attendants stand while the school song is sung by the Student Body. Then the players start the warm-up for the most important game of the year.

The Homecoming Queen Candidates were Bonnie Welton, Fay Hendricks, Barbara Bennett, Myrtle Rippee and Pam Hensley.

Terry Brown jumps high as the game with the Seymour Tigers gets underway.

The 1959 Homecoming Game was lost by a margin of only 53 to 56 in overtime. The Lions played a hard game, but we had been hurt by the loss of several of our starting players.

Nothing Now Is Left but a Majestic Memory, and Our Hope for the Future

Now the time has come to go,
Where we cannot say.
Never will we e'er forget
Memories of today.

As we leave and go away
As we bid adieu
May the happiness be great
For the school and you.

We must strive to meet our goal
Quitters never win,
When at last our dreams come true
That we feel within.

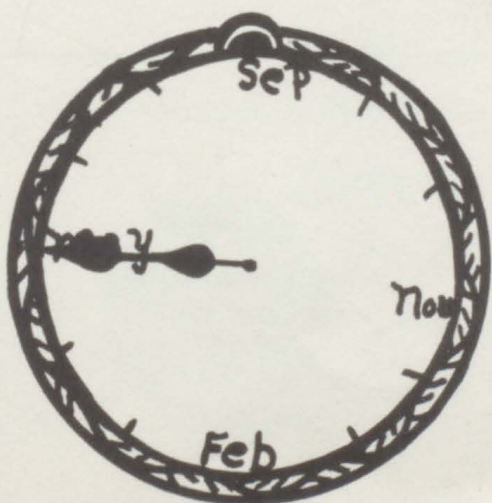

To the school, we love so well
May success come true
For we love you best of all
Peace we leave with you.

Time Passed, Did You

As the hand of time rings farewell, we look back with mixed emotions; yet, a note of sadness creeps into our thoughts for this has been a great year at Mansfield. We laughed and we cried, but we were together and wherever Father Time may lead us, we shall hold forever dear our trip, "Around the Clock at Mansfield."

The long awaited time.
